March General Membership Networking Luncheon

Our first General Membership Networking Luncheon was held on March 28 at EQT REC Center. The luncheon was sponsored by Pennsylvania Free Enterprise Week, a program for high school juniors and seniors that focuses on providing an unique learning opportunity. Students develop a company and operate it in a real world simulation learning valuable skills along the way. Waynesburg Central student and past participant, Chloe Payton, and PFEW director Scott Lee, spoke about the program. Eden Rogers also shared a few words about her reign as Miss Rain Day. Guests enjoyed a great lunch catered by Hungarian Smokehouse and as always, networking with other Chamber members.

Tourism announces 2018 grant recipients

www.VisitGreene.org

The Greene County Commissioners announced the distribution of $31,000 in tourism grant awards for Greene County attractions and events during their public meeting on Thursday, March 22.

"The grants provide resources to increase marketing and advertising for events and attractions as well as invest in capital improvements for our tourism assets" said Commissioner Blair Zimmerman. "The increased exposure and enhancements will hopefully attract new and repeat visitors."

Twenty-six Community Events & Project grants were awarded for a total of $21,000. The grants provide financial support for marketing and advertising to Tourism partners planning special events or projects that draw in tourists, enhance the tourist experience and serve to stimulate the local economy with the ultimate goal to generate overnight stays.

This year's recipients include the following: Buckin' B Cattle Co, $2,500 for Extreme Bullriding; Waynesburg Prosperous & Beautiful, $2,500 for Sheep & Fiber Festival, and $1,000 for 50's Fest & Car Cruise; Greene County Fair Board, $2,500 for Lucas Oil Mega Pull, and $1,000 for Greene County Fair; White Covered Bridge Association, $2,150 for White Covered Bridge Festival; Observer Publishing Company, $1,000 for Farm to Fork Greene County; Greene County Historical Society, $1,000 for Stone to Steel, $500 for Harvest Festival, and $500 for Steampunk Garden Party; King Coal Association, $1,000 for King Coal Show; Special Events Commission, $750 for Rain Day Festival; Rices Landing Volunteer Fire Department, $750 for Riverfest; Nathanael Greene Community Development Center, $500 for Art Blast on the Mon, and $200 for Holiday Craft Blast; Altered Gas Performance Events, $500 for Flashlight Drags; Greene County United Way, $500 for Greene Cuisine; Lippencott Alpacas, $500 for Open House; Waynesburg Lions Club, $500 for Sounds of Summer; Washington Health System-Greene, $500 for Sporting Clay Shoot; Greene County Chamber of Commerce, $400 for Motor Madness Car Show; and The Victory 5K, $250 for The Victory 5K.

Two Capital Development & Improvement

grants were awarded for a total of $10,000. Capital grants provide financial support tourism partners that are developing and improving amenities and experiences that increase Greene County's appeal to tourist. The recipients are Skyview Drive-In for $5,000 and The Perfect Arrangement/Lily Bee's Destination Gift Shop for $5,000.

The Skyview Drive-In plans on expanding and renovating the bathrooms and replace the sidewalks outside the building. The project will address the need to become accessible for those that have mobility issues as well as accommodate families with children. The goal for the project completion date is June 2018 but will depend on the weather.

The Perfect Arrangement/Lily Bee's Gift Shop will be expanding a product staging area into an additional showroom and move a design area for public viewing. The remodel will also create space to offer classes and events such as flower arrangement classes, wreath making, and tea parties.

Anyone interested in learning more about the 2018 grant recipients or to find out how to apply in 2019 are encouraged to contact the GCTPA at 724-627-8687.
