CFGFC Announces New Director

The Community Foundation of Greene County (CFGFC) has announced their new Executive Director, David Calvario, Ph.D. Dr. Calvario will replace current Executive Director, Bettie Stammerjohn, who announced last spring her intention to retire after fifteen years in the director's seat. Dr. Calvario brings more than 30 years of nonprofit experience, higher education, working with diverse age groups, and community issues to the position.

He earned his PH.D. in College Student Personnel Administration from the University of Northern Colorado. He also holds a Master of Science in Counseling/College Students Personnel, as well as a Bachelor of Science in Administration of Justice from Shippensburg University. Dr. Calvario's prior experience includes being the Executive Director of the Redevelopment Authority of the County of Greene since 2015. He has also served as the Executive Director of the Corner Cupboard Food Bank in 2014, has been an Associate Dean of Students at Waynesburg University in 1995 of which he worked his way up to become the Dean of Students and Director of

Center for Service Leadership and operated as the Chair of the Service-Learning Department from 2004-2014.

Dr. Calavrio said, "I am excited to start this new opportunity to expand the Foundation within our County. For me, life is about leaving fingerprints after we have departed this life. I look forward to working throughout our communities sharing how people can leave a legacy for generations to come."
