Chamber of Commerce Hosts Ribbon Cutting Ceremony for Shoe Sensation

The Greene County Chamber of Commerce recently hosted an official ribbon cutting ceremony for Shoe Sensation, a new business located at 120 Greene Plaza.

Shoe Sensation is a family shoe store, headquartered in Indiana, which sells a large selection of name-brand shoes in 20 states in the mid-west and eastern US. With the opening of the Waynesburg store, they continue their plan to open new stores in small and medium sized towns.

Greene County Chamber of Commerce Executive Director Melody Longstreth welcomed the crowd and introduced the speakers. The event featured remarks from Eric Cowden, representing Sen. Camera Bartolotta's office (Pennsylvania's 46th District), Rep. Bud Cook of the 50th Legislative District, Greene County Commissioner Betsy Rohanna McClure, and Bridget Vilenica, representing Waynesburg Prosperous and Beautiful. They noted the benefits of having our storefronts open for business. Representatives of the corporate office of Shoe Sensation as well as the store manager also spoke about the warm and enthusiastic welcome that the store and its personnel have received since opening in Greene County just one month ago.

Following the speakers, those in attendance gathered outside for the official ribbon cutting. Guests were then treated to refreshments (and shoe shopping opportunities) afterwards. The Greene County Chamber of Commerce is honored to participate in welcoming new businesses to our area.

For more information contact the store at (724) 707-1178.

In addition to the scholarship, Kaci will also receive a laptop courtesy of John Frownfelter, owner of PCsquared to use during her college career. A total of twenty-four applicants from all over the county applied for the scholarship.

Building Successful Outcomes in a Hybrid Work Model

One method by which employees today are looking to improve their overall health and well-being is through the establishment of a better balance between their home and work life. Although the shift to a more flexible work environment has been gaining momentum for some time, the pandemic has significantly accelerated its acceptance.

The degree to which employers support a hybrid or remote work arrangement for their workforce can make a difference in their ability to hire and retain staff as both employed workers and job seekers alike place a heavy emphasis today on things like job stability, the ability to perform meaningful work and flexibility in work arrangements. However, management within organizations operating in a hybrid environment are likely to experience both the benefits and the challenges. In addition to giving employees what they want and boosting hiring efforts, retention and overall productivity, business leaders are also faced with the task of promoting effective communication, employee engagement, idea collaboration and cultural growth.

To successfully promote and maintain hybrid work environment, employers may consider utilizing a few of the following strategies:

- Invest greater resources in team building. This is more important than ever with a workforce lacking interactions at the office. Creating a solid foundation through effective employee engagement will allow for greater collaboration and increased worker productivity.
- Treat all employees fairly. Successful hybrid operations ensure that all employees, whether they work from home or the office, are considered for special projects and promotions. They also provide their on-site workers the same flexibility in scheduling and hours worked as those that work remotely.
- Empower employees. Business leaders shouldn't fear encouraging employees to accept new responsibilities. Create an environment that fosters innovative thinking, allowing workers to be help create the parameters of their new workspace.
- Trust employees. For many business owners and managers, the hybrid work model represents a significant shift from the traditional leadership roles they may be accustomed to, whereby they were physically present, monitoring daily operations with their eyes and ears. Successfully transitioning to a people-centric style that trusts workers even when not in sight is critical to the model's success.
- Focus on outcomes. Leaders should look to judge employee productivity by the level of contribution instead of the number of hours worked. Allowing for a more fluid work environment with efficient use of resources can fuel enhanced job performance, making the final outcome more important than the schedule used to achieve it.
- Rethink communication methods. Remote work requires more creative methods of communication. Utilizing a platform that fosters knowledge sharing, leadership visibility and targeted communications is essential in maintaining effective two-way communications between management and employees. And just because employees aren't in the office doesn't mean their schedules should be full of numerous zoom meetings. Try utilizing communication that provides for more one-on-one, targeted discussions when appropriate.

Aviation enthusiasts fly into Waynesburg for breakfast at Asher's at the Airport

Members of an Ohio branch of the Experimental Aircraft Association (EAA) based in Heath, OH, flew to Waynesburg for breakfast. The group had a long history of dining at the former Airport Restaurant and were delighted to hear that the restaurant had been reincarnated as Asher's at the Airport when new owners Missy and Matt Harding opened in the same location.

EAA members are a "group of aviation enthusiasts, aircraft builders, and pilots who get together with like minded people to share ideas, exchange information, encourage safety, serve the local aviation community and have a lot of fun doing so."

The group of 9 left Newark-Heath Airport in Ohio in several different aircraft: Cessna 172, Beechcraft Bonanza, Super Cub, Centurion 210, and a Cherokee 235. The participants were Dan Hooper and daughter Emma from Zanesville, OH, Dave Hall from New Albany, OH, Bob Erhard and Tom Thompson from Granville, OH, and Chris Anderson from Heath, OH, Ryan Kissell and son from Johnstown, OH, and Rollie Bailey from Frazeyburg, OH.

The timing of their flight coincided with the Helicopter Egg Drop, sponsored by several local churches, which provided a fun backdrop for their breakfast.

Rollie, who serves as EAA Chapter Vice President, had kept in touch with Chamber of Commerce Executive Director, Melody Longstreth, since the loss of the original Airport Restaurant. Longstreth provided him with the renovation status of the restaurant over time until Asher's was opened. By way of a thank you, he has promised to buy her breakfast at Asher's on his next fly-in to Waynesburg.

Department of Health Application for a Device that Cleans Air & Sanitizes Surfaces

The Department of Health (DOH) is currently evaluating devices that can eliminate viruses, bacteria, mold and other pathogens from air and surfaces, simultaneously. The devices could be stand alone or wall mounted, utilize a standard outlet for power, and would come with 2 years of supplies that may be needed to run the device. If funding is approved, DOH would purchase and distribute the devices free of charge to small businesses, non-profit entities, and other facilities throughout the Commonwealth to mitigate the spread of COVID-19, flu, and other diseases. If you are interested in receiving a device that could greatly reduce viruses, bacteria, mold and other pathogens in your business, please complete this application by May 8th.

Currently, the application is being used to gauge interest in receiving a device, and those who complete the application are not guaranteed to receive one. However, the application must be accurately completed in order to be considered when and if funding becomes available. At that point, DOH would reach out to the businesses chosen to receive devices, to confirm delivery details and provide an approval notice. Devices will be awarded based on the amount of funding available and on a first come first served basis. DOH will also consider factors such as foot traffic versus square footage, and COVID-19 risk in the community where the business is located, prioritizing underserved communities.

If you are interested, please complete this application by May 8th to be considered and feel free to share this information with others in your network who may be business owners or manage non-profit organizations!

Keeping PA Beautiful by Miles of Two!

PennDOT's Adopt-A-Highway Program offers Pennsylvanians an opportunity to show their pride in our beautiful state by caring for the environment. We all know that a litter-free Pennsylvania is better for visitors and more attractive to businesses.

Annually, tens of thousands of civic-minded and caring citizens freely give their time and effort to help keep Pennsylvania beautiful.

Thanks to their efforts, these volunteers have made Pennsylvania a recognized leader in the fight to keep our roadways litter free.

With your help, we can continue our commitment to a cleaner, healthier and more beautiful Pennsylvania.

In 2019, a study found more than 500 million pieces of litter distributed across Pennsylvania's roadways.

Cigarette butts, plastics and food packaging.

From the city to the countryside, this is the trash that many careless people leave on Pennsylvania's highways. It's not a pretty sight and it certainly does not make a good impression for the people who live here or who are traveling through Pennsylvania.

PennDOT's Adopt-A-Highway is an effective way to reduce the overall cost of litter pick-up in Pennsylvania. By volunteering to clean a two-mile section of state highway two times a year, you are helping to protect our state's natural resources and environment.

Here is how you can make a personal contribution to a cleaner environment:

◆ The Program is simple . . .

You, your civic or volunteer group sign a two-year agreement with PennDOT to adopt a two-mile portion of state highway and promise to pick up litter at least two times a year. In return, PennDOT will post signs along the highway giving you or your group full credit for your efforts.

◆ Your safety is important . . .

PennDOT will provide safety training for volunteers and upon request, we provide safety vests, gloves, trash bags and can coordinate removal of items afterward. Volunteers must be at least eight years old and participants under 18 must be accompanied by adults.

◆ Take care of the environment . . .

You can join a popular effort to clean up litter on Pennsylvania's collective front yard— its 150,000 acres of roadside. By helping to keep this great state clean for our own residents as well as for the millions of visitors who travel our roads every year, you are making an important contribution to protect our natural resources.

Visit www.penndot.pa.gov and search "Adopt-A-Highway" to sign up today or simply scan the code to get started!
