I-79 Exxon on the Run

The I-79 Exxon On The Run convenience center is NOW OPEN in Waynesburg! The store is open 24 hours a day, 7 days a week. It features a full service McDonalds Restaurant with drive-thru and inside dining. The new On The Run convenience store and Exxon fuel station, and the all new Stuck's Laserwash are all together in one easy location near the I-79 Waynesburg exit.

I-79 On The Run boasts the largest soda fountain drink selection in Greene County with 20 taps serving up all the flavors you crave including both Coke and Pepsi products. Multi flavors of cool, refreshing Icees are at your fingertips and the roller grill is loaded with hot and delicious taquitos, corn dogs, hot dogs and specialty dogs with all the fixings. Nachos are available as well. Coffee lovers have a host of gourmet blends, cappuccinos, hot chocolate and more to choose from. A 12-door cooler is filled to the brim with a great selection of waters, energy drinks, soda, juices, dairy and more.

Wide aisles offer easy shopping and the store is designed for fast, easy in and out. It also features upscale restrooms with floor to ceiling ceramic tile.

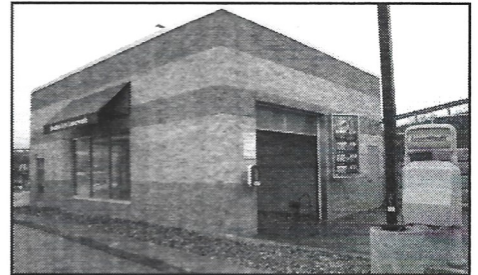

Positioned on the same lot where the original I-79 Exxon was located, the new convenience center was engineered to provide maximum parking space and easy navigation. Five fueling stations are easily accessed by both east and west bound traffic. Adjacent to the parking area is the state-of-the-art Laserwash car wash. Regardless of whether you're fueling up, enjoying a meal at McDonalds, shopping the convenience store or taking a glide through the most advanced and fastest touch free car wash in town, or any combination, the experience is a smooth one.

Locally owned by the Stuck Family, operators of Jacobs Petroleum in Waynesburg, the new center is another example of how this company continues to grow and invest its resources in our community and the lifestyle of its residents.

"The I-79 Exxon was a prime location for expansion since it is so convenient not only to interstate travelers, but also to the local residents. It's close to the shopping centers and schools and an area of Waynesburg that is seeing a lot of development. We're excited to be able to offer new choices for food, as well as the new Laserwash, which employs the latest technology in the touch free automatic car wash," says Steve Stuck of Jacobs Petroleum, which also owns the High Street Exxon and Stuck's Laserwash near downtown Waynesburg. "Now you have two choices... whether you're near downtown or out by I-79, you can get a great wash in minutes along with a large and modern convenience store at I-79 with self-serve pumps or have the luxury of our staff pumping the gas for you at our High Street location. We really appreciate the support of our local customers and we hope our stores can become a destination for more local people."

Another vital element to the company's continued growth according to Steve is its investment in quality people and a well trained staff. The new I-79 Exxon On The Run store is managed by Sandy Harmon, who has been with the company for 13 years. Jacobs Petroleum employs over 100 people company-wide through its retail locations, residential heating and commercial fuel distribution. The company has really grown in the past couple of years in supplying the natural gas drilling industry with fuel products. The business office is located at 1115 East High Street in Waynesburg.
