Waynesburg Rotary Donates First Aid Kits to Local Police

The Rotary Club of Waynesburg presented first aid kits to several organizations whose members are sometimes faced with emergency medical situations. Each kit is filled with a variety of medical supplies including cold packs, bandages, gloves and tourniquets. "The need was brought to our attention and we wanted to help bridge the gap and ensure these individuals are all well prepared as they serve our community," shared Heidi Szuminsky, President. "Each of these individuals embody the Rotary motto 'Service Above Self' and we are glad to help them in this small way."

By-Law Updates

Enclosed in this issue you will find proposed changes to the Chamber's By-Laws. Please review and be prepared to cast your vote at the September General Membership Networking Luncheon.

Since opening our agency, we have been humbled by the outpouring of support. We realize the trust that has been placed with us and respect this responsibility to our clients and anyone who seeks our assistance. We value this opportunity and prioritize our position to contribute to our community.

Caitlin and I are honored that you feel comfortable and confident with our agency and we are proud to have you as clients and colleagues. We are also humbled by the referrals we have received. There is no better feeling than the one that comes from having a satisfied client who refers you to trusted friends and business associates.

Board of Director Elections

In this issue you will find a 2016-2018 Board of Directors ballot. Each member business has one vote available to them. You may respond by mailing your ballot back to the office, faxing it back, emailing it back, dropping it off in person, or by attending the September 23rd Luncheon and turning it in in person. We hope to see you at the meeting!
