Chix in the Stix

The Chamber will host the inaugural Greene County Chix in the Stix women's outdoor event on Saturday, July 7th and 8th, at Hunting Hills in Dilliner, Pa. Hunting Hills is a 100-plus-acre Sporting Clays facility owned and operated by Roy Sisler and his family.

Women in the tri-state area with an interest in outdoor recreational activities ranging from shooting and archery to fly tying and scrapbooking can attend Chix in the Stix for a registration fee of $50. The fee includes five classes, necessary equipment and materials, professional instruction, an official "Chix in the Stix" tee-shirt, continental breakfast, lunch and hors d'oeuvres, catered by Back Bay of Morgantown, W. Va.

Friday evening will consist of learning how to pitch a tent, build a campfire, line dance and of course build the perfect smore. Attendance is optional on Friday evening and those wishing to spend the night should bring a tent or a camper. Restrooms and showers are available on the grounds.

Saturday's events will include a display from the Penn State Master Gardeners, a silent auction, a Chinese auction and door prizes. After a continental breakfast and group photo, five classes will take place during the morning and early afternoon and will be held rain or shine.

Participants may choose to try their hand at several shooting sports, including sporting clays, muzzle loading, 22 pistols and rifles. Archery will be available as well as a class on how to train and handle a bird dog. A class in outdoor cooking will be presented along with a stamping and scrapbooking class to teach how to preserve those outdoor memories. Fishing will be covered in two separate classes, fly tying and casting and a general family fishing class.

The event follows two successful years of Greene County Women in the Outdoors, sponsored by the National Wild Turkey Federation, the Chamber, the Wind Ridge Sportsmen's Club and the Greene County Tourist Promotion Agency. The Chamber board voted and decided to create and independently sponsor the new Chix in the Stix event. In 2004, the event won one of two dozen national awards given by the National Wild Turkey Federation, and in 2005, the attendance doubled to 50 participants.

For more information or to receive a registration form, contact Melody Longstreth, Event Coordinator and Chamber Executive Director, at (724) 627-5926, or e-mail wbgchamb@greenepa.net.

Waynesburg Chamber of Commerce Awards 16th Annual Scholarship

Charles Perrine, President of the Board of Directors of the Waynesburg Area Chamber of Commerce, has announced that the 16th annual scholarship in the amount of $1,500 was presented to Haddie Roberts of West Greene High School. Eighteen-year-old Haddie plans to attend Waynesburg College to pursue a degree in Elementary Education this fall. She is the daughter of Scott and Teresa Roberts of Rogersville, Pa., and a 2006 graduate of West Greene High School, where she maintained a 4.034 grade point average.

The scholarship, the sixteenth for the Chamber, is presented each year to a Greene County senior who plans to attend a college or trade school. The 2006 scholarship was awarded based on grade point average and a 500-word essay on "What their life goal is and how they plan to address it through their education." The students' community involvement and school activities are reviewed in the case of a tie. Haddie was a special guest of the Chamber at the May General Membership Meeting of the Chamber, where she read her winning essay entitled "My Purpose in Life and How I Plan to Address It Through Education."

This year, twenty-three applications for the scholarship were received by the Chamber. The committee had a difficult task of selecting one winner from the qualified field. The committee members were Mary K. Pruss of Peacock Keller; Nancy Davis of Greene County Education Center; Penny Ketchem of Waynesburg College; Sheila Barger of First National Bank of Penna.; Karen Zalom of Foundation Coal; Ami Cree of Padgett Business Services; Lucy Northrop and Jon Stevens of the Observer-Reporter; Jeff Widdup of First Federal Savings & Loan; Kiperly Whitlatch, independent Mary Kay beauty consultant; and Lindsay Blair of the Clerk of Courts Office. The Chamber would like to thank all who participated in the process.

Chamber Member – Lisa Kreuzer of Chuck's Collision Shop poses with a very nice grouping of arrows at the 2005 event.

2nd Quarter General Membership Breakfast

Bethany Doyle, director of College Relations at Waynesburg College, spoke about the College's future at the 2nd Quarter General Membership Breakfast. Bethany highlighted recent exciting events on campus, including the graduation of more than 575 students, new academic programs and construction projects involving several buildings. Bethany noted that the College has made slight changes to its academic logo and its athletic W, and she previewed this summer's events: a Supercomputing Conference, the 2nd Annual CSI Camp and Celebrating the Arts, featuring the play "Steel Magnolias," writing workshops and musical performances, all set to take place in July.

AMERICAN CANCER SOCIETY

Tell a friend about the importance of mammography. It just may save her life. The American Cancer Society's screening guidelines: 1. Have a mammogram each year beginning at age 40. 2. Get an annual breast exam from your health professional 3. Do breast self-examination each month.

Colon testing can save your life! You feel fine and try to take care of yourself. Great! But you're still at risk for colon cancer, and you should get tested regularly if you're 50 or older. Get the test! Get the polyp! Get the cure!

Trained cancer information specialists are available 24 hours a day, 7 days a week to assist callers with questions about cancer, local programming and community resources. Call the National Center Information Center at 1-800-ACS-2345.
